

Heather Milne

(b. 1976)

heatherjoymilne@gmail.com / heatherjoymilne.weebly.com

Heather Milne is a digital photographer based in Christchurch, New Zealand. Heather draws on her observations and experiences of trauma, recovery, and transformation to create photographs that document social and environmental change, and shared community experiences. Over the past four years, her work has included themes such as gender, art accessibility, urban decay, and public grief.

Education

Diploma, Digital Photography, Southern Institute of Technology 2017

Exhibitions

- 2022 Group exhibition, Women Street Photographers, El Bario's Artspace, New York
- 2020 Solo exhibition, 'Routine Isolation', Christchurch
- 2020 Group exhibition, Gallery FotoNostrum, Barcelona
- 2019 Solo exhibition, 'In Their Place', as part of TEDxChCh, Christchurch
- 2019 Group exhibition by ChCh Women's Photography Collective, '[Inter]Connected', Christchurch
- 2019 Group exhibition by ChCh Women's Photography Collective, '[Inter]Connected II', Christchurch
- 2019 Group exhibition, The Glasgow Gallery of Photography, Scotland
- 2018 Group installation [CROP] Project: Flash Intervention, Christchurch
- 2018 Group exhibition, Zonta Ashburton Female Art Awards, Ashburton
- 2018 Satellite exhibition for Auckland Festival of Photography 'Movement Of Art And Earth', Auckland
- 2017 Solo exhibition 'Movement Of Art And Earth', Christchurch

Bibliography

- Fusco, Cassandra: 'Concerns, Large and Small', Art New Zealand Magazine, Spring Edition 2019, p. 99-103
- 'Heather Milne', Situations Magazine, September 2018, p. 18-19

Collections

Works held in private collections in New Zealand, Australia, Japan, and Germany.

Curatorial Projects

- 2019 Interconnected II, The Christchurch Women's Photography Collective (Nov)
- 2019 Interconnected, The Christchurch Women's Photography Collective (May)

Awards

- 2018 Hine Kahukura Award, New Horizons for Women Trust
- 2018 Winner, DocEdge Life Unscripted 2018, DocEdge New Zealand
- 2018 Finalist, Zonta Ashburton Female Art Award, Ashburton Art Gallery